

City of Middletown Transit
Business and Community Leader Workshop

Tuesday, February 21, 2 to 4 p.m.
Miami University Middletown Campus – Multi-Purpose Room

AGENDA

Workshop Purpose

Inform area business and community stakeholders of transit's current economic health and role in serving the community; seek their input on small or large improvements that would make the bus system more convenient and useful to employees, customers and students. Also seek their input on creative ways to help the transit system achieve these changes.
